(AGI) Rome - The Recent Graduate Survey 2011 reveals ENI to be the Best Employer of Choice among Italian graduates. This annual survey is promoted by Cesop Communication, a leading Italian consulting company in the field of corporate communication services for the recruitment of graduates and young professionals. The survey was conducted on a sample of 2,500 graduates from 2011, distributed proportionally by sex, geographical area and type of degree, in line with the proportions given each year in the official figures from the Ministry of Education, University and Research. . .
